Weddings of the Week.

A very pleasant wedding took place in the evening of Thanksgiving Day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Han, in Detroit, when their daughter, Miss Grace H. Han and Mr. Fred W. Lewis, of the township of Brockway, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Elder J. H. Paton, of Almont. The groomsmen and bridesmaids were Mr. J. U. Sterling, of Detroit, and Miss Minnie Garling, of Emmet. A goodly number of relatives and other friends were present, and shared happily in the congratulations and the bountiful supply of refreshments. Much joy to the newly married pair.

As but little data was given us for the last issue concerning the Johnston-Newell wedding which occurred Thursday, November 28th, 1901, we are happy to give more of the details relating to the occurrence. At four P. M. the hour preferred, Elder D. McCall, followed by the bride party, William Newell and Miss Dollie Johnston, with their supporters, Grace, sister of the groom and Thomas Johnston, brother of the bride who served the groom as best man, proceeded to the parlor. There in the presence of the near relatives and friends, the ceremony was conducted. Congratulations were then extended the happy couple, after which the guests repaired to the dining room where a bounteous supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Newell left on the evening train to visit Jackson, Detroit and other points of interest, for a short honeymoon, returning Wednesday evening, December 4th. Upon reaching their destination a reception awaited them at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Newell, where about forty guests were assembled to greet the young couple. Several hours of enjoyment were received from the amusement provided for the occasion, after which the guests dispersed, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Newell many happy years of wedded bliss.

Business Change.

Wednesday morning a business transaction was concluded by means of which the Yale public welcomes one of its oldest business men as he embarks upon his new enterprise. Several years ago Joel Smades started a pop-corn stand on Main street. Business thrived under Joel's careful management and some time ago his stock of confectionery, cigars, fruits, etc., was moved into a more commodious building than the one in which the enterprise started. His goods were in great favor with the young people of this village and country, and the business since then has steadily increased. Lately, however, Joel has decided to try something else, and in pursuance of this resolution, has sold to John D. McKeith his entire stock. Mr. McKeith needs no introduction to Yale people, as he for many years conducted a general store on south Main street. Mr. Smades has not yet decided just what he will do, but whatever avocation he follows we wish him unlimited success.

To the Public.

Allow me to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I had a very severe cough and cold and feared I would get pneumonia, but after taking the second dose of this medicine I felt better, three bottles of it cured my cold and the pains in my chest disappeared entirely. I am most respectfully yours for health, Ralph S. Meyers, 64-Thirty-seventh st., Wheeling, W. Va. For sale by Grant Holden.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mrs. Alice A. Pohly, nee Alice Oatman was born in Greenwood township, St. Clair county, Michigan, November 25, 1853, and died November 24, 1901, at Juniata, Tuscola county, at the age of 37 years, 11 months and 29 days. She was united in marriage with Christian Pohly, October 18th, 1892. This union was blessed with three children, one daughter and two sons, one of the latter has preceded her to the spirit world. The deceased leaves a heart-broken husband, two children, an aged mother, four brothers, one sister and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her early departure. The immediate cause of death was heart failure.

The sad news of the death of Mrs. J. F. Holden, of Brown City, was received in Yale Wednesday noon, and our citizens were pained to learn of it. The immediate cause of death was pneumonia, she having been sick only about ten days. Deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Baker, of Port Huron, and became the wife of Jesse Holden about 22 years ago. She was 43 years of age at the time of her death. A husband and four children—one son and three daughters—besides many warm friends are left to mourn the early demise of a loving wife and kind and affectionate mother. The funeral will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the house.

Mrs. Wm. Lent, a former resident of Yale, died at her home in Millersburg on Sunday, Dec. 1, and the funeral was held at the M. P. church Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Rev. J. J. Beatty officiating. A husband and two sons aged 13 and 15 are left to mourn her loss.

Resolutions of Condolence.

At a meeting of Star Arbor, No. 12, held on Thursday evening, November 7th, 1901, the following letter of condolence was adopted:

Whereas, death has again broken our circle and taken one from our number in the person of Thomas Williams, one of the younger members of our Arbor; therefore be it

Resolved, That we as companions extend our heartfelt sympathy to relatives and friends of the deceased in their sad hour of bereavement. Be it also

Resolved, That we drape our charter for a period of sixty days. Be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the father and family and published in the Yale Expressor and monthly Gleaner.

Committee { George Bricker
